After an early breakfast we catch our schedule flight and fly towards the foot hills of Mount Kenya, to Nanyuki and Laikipia camp, located in Ol Pejeta private conservancy of 90,000 acres in time for lunch. Just 6 luxury tents overlooking a waterhole where wildlife congregates and it is tempting to just relax on your verandah and observe the action! However, there is so much to see and lots of activities available and the area too beautiful to allow time, to sit still; there is no other way but to grasp the natural wonders that await our presence. We spend the next 3 days exploring this beautiful wilderness.

The Conservancy is home to a large population of Black & white Rhino, as well as elephant, cheetah, lion, leopard, and plentiful plains game. There are also a number of rarer Northern species such as Grevy Zebra, Jacksons Hartebeest, reticulated giraffe and Beisa Oryx.

The Conservancy lies on the Equator and with sweeping grass lands, beautiful acacia forests and wonderful views of Mt Kenya.

Available too, is a wide range of other activities including - mountain biking safari's, lion tracking, canoeing, and visits to the Wildlife Educational center, Chimpanzee sanctuary and Northern White rhino enclosure.

During our stay at the Kicheche Laikipia camp, we shall take a day to drive to the Aberdare Mountain, a beautiful semi tropical forested National Park, to spend the day exploring this magnificent forest, filled with ancient trees dripping with Spanish moss, colobus monkeys, Sykes monkeys, buffalo, forest elephant, bushbuck, giant forest hog, warthog, leopard as well as numerous colourful birds.

We shall enjoy a picnic lunch in the forested glade and then gently make our way down through the forest, pretty glades, and tall ancient trees and of course being serenaded by magical bird sounds.

We may get a glimpse of the shy Colobus monkey one of our most beautiful and unusual 'monkeys'!

When we have had enough, we will drive back to camp in the late afternoon for sundowners by the fire and a sumptuous dinner in Camp.

Day - 6, 7, 8 & 9 - Kicheche Mara Camp - Maasai Mara

After leisurely camp breakfast, we board our schedule flight and fly south west to the world famous Maasai Mara reserve, where big game is the order of the day. On the sweeping river-fed plains, the whole of wild Africa congregates, from Elephant and Buffalo to the prowling cats and huge herds of plains game, our home for the next four days.

Our days will be filled with a veritable wildlife feast.

The camp is set up in the heart of the Mara North Conservancy, in a picturesque valley, surrounded by indigenous trees and bush, commanding beautiful views across the valley and beyond to the Maasai Mara Reserve.

Although Mara North conservancy borders the Maasai Mara reserve, there really is no reason to go any further, as wildlife is plentiful and a large pride of lion has made their home, here in the conservancy, as well as a plethora of many other species.

Subject to the location of the wildlife, we may perhaps, spend one day in the Maasai Mara Game Reserve. Breakfast and lunch will be eaten in the bush, when and where we want it.

The wildlife is abundant and the gentle rolling grasslands ensure that animals are never out of sight. Birds, too, are prolific. Including migrants, well over 450 species have been recorded, among them, 57 species of birds of prey. The climate is gentle, rarely too hot and well-spread rainfall year round. The Mara North Conservancy borders the Maasai Mara National Reserve (1672 square km) which lies about 270 kilometers from Nairobi and the conservancy have exclusive use of about 67,900 acres of un-spoilt wilderness.

The first sight of this natural wonderland is breathtaking. Throughout the year the Maasai Mara is a place of natural drama, a kaleidoscope of colour and life. Thomson's and Grant's gazelle, Topi and Eland and many more species of plains' game offer a rich choice of food for the dominant predators; lion, leopard and cheetah which hunt in this pristine wilderness. Here the great herds of shuffling elephants browse among the rich tree-studded grasslands.

In the Mara River, Hippo and Crocodile are commonly found. But for all this richness of fauna, the profusion of winged beauty and the untouched fragility of the landscape are all subordinate to the Mara's foremost attraction, the mighty march of the wildebeest. Culminating in the most spectacular annual migration in the world, with over a million and a half wildebeest and zebra making the crossings over the grand Mara River from Tanzania into Kenya, this spectacle offers one of the most fabulous opportunities in our time. Although July, August and September are the months when the Maasai Mara plains are filled with migrating wildebeest and zebra, there is a huge amount of resident wildlife year round. Apart from the better-known species there are numerous opportunities to add some of the rare and less frequently seen animals to the visitor's checklist. Bat-eared foxes peer from their burrows and there are thousands of Topi, an antelope not found in other major parks save Tsavo National Park. The combination of a gentle climate, scenic splendor and untold numbers of wildlife makes the Maasai Mara Kenya's most popular inland destination park.

DAY 10 - DEPARTURE:

We shall enjoy a last early morning game drive, then after lunch, we can freshen up and catch our afternoon schedule flight to Nairobi Wilson, and then transferred to the International Airport and your onward flight home.

End of services.

ABOUT YOUR OLIVE TREK SAFARI GUIDES:-

PETER CADOT

Pete has spent 37 years of his marriage, to Alison, sharing East Africa's wilderness treasures with Chala & Torsten, their children and visitors from all over the world.

Peter's paternal Grandfather (French) relinquished his French ancestry, for an English wife and a life in England. Their only son Dennis came to Kenya in 1944, with the Royal Artillery ("Gunners," as he would proudly say) and later became a respected member of the Advertising fraternity both in Kenya and South Africa.

His maternal Grandfather (Scottish) was transferred from the Rhodesian Rangers, seconded to the British Army in Kenya, then joining the KAR, (King's African Rifles) around 1915. Arriving as a Sergeant thereafter quickly promoted to Captain. His unit was instrumental in fighting an epic battle for Saliata Hill, close to the border of Tanzania which the Germans held onto convincingly. After the First World War, he claimed his 'Soldier/ settler' Farm, on the foothills of Mount Kenya and Aberdare Mountain. Diana, Peters' mother, lived and grew up at Ngobit Farm, Nyeri.

Pete always carries two things on safari: his unrivalled natural knowledge and a bounty of bush skills born from three generations in the Kenyan wilderness.

Since completing his education in England, Peter has dedicated his life and passion to the safari industry, running game lodges, camps and camping adventures around East Africa. He is renowned for his deep knowledge of the local flora and fauna, his close relations with the Samburu and Maasai communities, his warm humour, and his legendary campfire wit. But beware: not all tales he tells are as tall as they may seem!

TORSTEN CADOT

Torsten, born and raised in the vast Kenyan wilderness developed a passion and deep love for "everything bush" from a young age. His insatiable curiosity and enthusiasm to further his knowledge and insight into the African wilderness is infectious. He loves sharing this knowledge and adventurous spirit with many a guest! His deep respect and close friendship with many indigenous tribes in Kenya adds a wonderful cultural twist to each safari.

In 2012 Torsten left Kenya to pursue a career in the British military, and to satiate a zeal for international travel, and adventure.

Returning after a 9-year absence, with a host of professional accolades, and an accumulation of stories of travel, exploration, adventure and guarding the British royal family, he has settled in the leafy suburbs of Nairobi, to pursue his lifelong dream of leading adventure and photographic safaris and guiding alongside his father - Peter.

Like his Father, his subtle humour, and cheeky wit, will have you believing in many a fireside narrative!
