Karibu – Welcome! DAY 2, 3 & 4 - KICHECHE LAIKIPIA CAMP – OL PEJETA ON THE SLOPES OF MOUNT KENYA

After an early breakfast we catch our schedule flight and fly towards, the foot hills of Mount Kenya, to Nanyuki and Kicheche Laikipia camp, located in Ol Pejeta private conservancy of 90,000 acres in time for lunch. Just 6 luxury tents overlooking a waterhole where wildlife congregates and it is tempting to just relax on your verandah and observe the action! However, there is so much to see and lots of activities available and the area too beautiful to allow time, to sit still; there is no other way but to grasp the natural wonders that await our presence.

We spend the next 3 days exploring this beautiful wilderness.

The Conservancy is home to a large population of Black & white Rhino, as well as elephant, cheetah, lion, leopard, African wild dog and plentiful plains game. There are also a number of rarer Northern species such as Grevy Zebra, Jacksons Hartebeest, reticulated giraffe and Beisa Oryx.

The Conservancy lies on the Equator and with sweeping grass lands, beautiful acacia forests and wonderful views of Mt Kenya.

Available too, is a wide range of activities including walking safaris, game viewing (day & night) in a 4WD vehicle, mountain biking safari's, lion tracking, canoeing, and visits to the Wildlife Educational center, Chimpanzee sanctuary and Northern White rhino enclosure.

DAY 5 & 6 – TUMAREN CAMP – LAIKIPIA PLATEAU

After an early breakfast we are transferred by road, approximately 3hour drive to Turamen camp, situated in the far northern part of Laikipia Plateau, arriving in time for a sumptuous lunch, overlooking the busy waterhole and dramatic plains beyond.

Laikipia is one of the largest conservation areas, covering approximately 9,500 sq kilometers, although divided by private and local community ranch lands. There are no fences, allowing wildlife to continue migrating, as well as a safe haven for many rare species to live and breed freely in this magnificent, but vast natural wilderness.

The owners of Turamen Camp, Kerry and James purchased the Ranch, with a dream of turning, their land, as well as the adjoining community grazing lands, into a 10,500 wildlife conservation area. Together with the local communities, this is now a dream released. Today wildlife does not have to compete for grazing with the local livestock, and in this vast arena, resident wildlife have returned to this magnificent wild ecosystem!

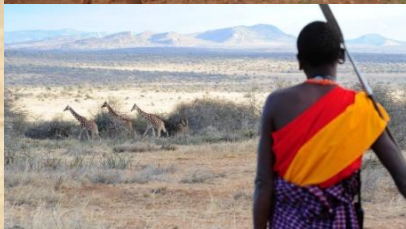

Many resident herds of elephant, reticulated giraffe, greater kudu, dik dik and the endangered grevy zebra, lion, leopard, hyena, to name but a few, have now made Tumaren Ranch their home!

We can now taste the real adventure, as we are 'off the beaten track' and begin to truly appreciate the meaning of exploring this spectacular landscape filled with wildlife, on foot, camel or vehicle.

There are numerous activities to do here, but our main focus is to explore on foot, to immerse yourself in this ancient land, will leave deep impressions that Africa belongs to you!

We are spoilt for choice, you can be as relaxed as you wish, sit by the busy waterhole and revel in the freedom of just being or perhaps a bush walk or a camel to ferry you across the plains, a game drive - the choice is yours.

As the Safari tradition dictates, in the late afternoon, we will head out and enjoy a delightful sundowner, with our favourite cocktail in hand, perched on a rock, as we lose ourselves in this magnificent paradise and the golden rays of setting sun.

When we have had enough of this blissful scene, we return to camp and sit round the camp fire reminiscing of the day's events.

Indulge yourself in the peace and comfort of Turmen Camp and tune into the magical night sounds of wild Africa, while dining under the glittering stars.

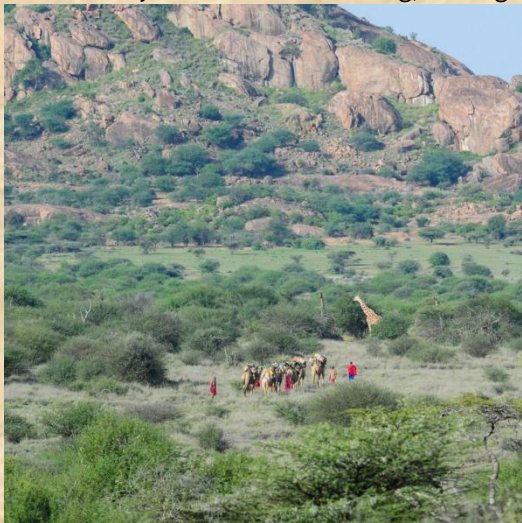

We have 3 days to explore this ancient, but magnificent wilderness before our next adventure begins!

DAY 7 & 8 – TUMAREN SATELLITE CAMP – LAIKIPIA PLATEAU

We are awakened with a steaming cup of coffee and the golden rays of sun peaking over the horizon, framing the snow-capped peaks of Mt. Kenya.

After an early breakfast this morning, we begin our gentle walk with a train of camels to escort us, through this gorgeous wilderness, filled with wonderful wildlife, birds, interesting plants, trees, beautiful scenes, as we make our way down to the Ewaso Ngiro River, where our very own satellite camp has been set up for us and our delicious lunch is served.

The camp has been carried by the camels and herded by the local Samburu community, who will be our hosts for the next 2 days.

We are, in the heart of Africa, far from the madding crowd, so let your body and soul free and revel in the safari of yesteryear!

There are no modern conveniences, no noise intrusion and mobile signal maybe erratic, but we encourage you to enjoy the freedom of just being, temporarily disconnected, from the modern world.

There are wonderful hot traditional safari bucket showers, enclosed in privacy, in the evenings to freshen-up after our daily treks; after all there is so much a camel can carry.

Our typical days, begins at dawn, with a steaming cup of Tea or coffee, a small snack to keep us going till breakfast is served, wherever our hosts decide, but there is no doubt it will be set with an extraordinary panorama in mind!

We set off from camp at a leisurely pace; there is no rush in Africa! We can either walk or ride a camel, the choice is yours.

Along the river is an oasis, more so for the thirsty wildlife, which gives us an opportunity to stroll along the banks of the river and blend in with nature. Then, sit quietly and observe the thirsty wildlife gathering by the water's edge.

There is nothing more thrilling than to watch a herd of elephant saunter down to the river, slurping up trunk loads of water and spurting it down their throats, with joyous grumbles or perhaps a reticulated giraffe in its ungainly pose dipping its nose into the cooling waters or herds of impala close by or the shy Dik Dik darting from its cover, to zebra, but not only wildlife, there is a host of bird life too, their dazzling colours are spectacular, but bird song is one nature's orchestral delights!

Our days will be filled with a veritable feast of walks, which take us through virgin country, where Africa is yours. There is always a chance to take a dip in the cool waters of the river if you wish. Our daily walk is not a marathon, but a gentle amble across this magical landscape and as a Swahili proverb aptly states. "A person who is in too much of a hurry, stubs his toe!"

There is always something to stop and marvel at, from the smallest of insects, beautiful birds, to the busy game trails where footprints tell a story. To inhale the scents of Africa – is to immerse yourself in another world.

There is a chance to stalk and approach the wildlife on foot; our quiet presence means that we can observe these animals in their own habitat, a truly enlightening experience!

Each day around noon, when it is hot, we return to our camp for a delicious lunch, afternoon rest or perhaps join our hosts the Samburu people to learn how they survive, from lighting fires with sticks, throwing spears to understanding their simple way of life, a truly educational experience.

Late afternoon, we can either ride a camel for a different perspective of our environment, or make our way to a special sundowner rock where our favorite cocktails will be served. To revel in this beautiful surrounding scenery, whilst being serenaded, by evening chorus as the setting sun dips below the horizon, is truly indescribable.

When we have had enough we return to camp, freshen up and sit around the campfire where stories of the day's events are related and a delicious dinner is served in the open mess.

Each day is different, but you will find that it will end sooner than you want it to!

Day 9, 10, 11 & 12 - Kicheche Mara Camp - Maasai Mara

After an early breakfast we bid farewell to the satellite camp crew and transferred by road to Nanyuki to board our scheduled flight and fly south west to the world famous Maasai Mara reserve, here big game is the order of the day. On the sweeping river-fed plains, the whole of wild Africa congregates, from Elephant and Buffalo to the prowling cats and huge herds of plains game, our home for the next four days.

Our days will be filled with a veritable wildlife feast.

The camp is set up in the heart of the Mara North Conservancy, in a picturesque valley, surrounded by indigenous trees and bush, commanding beautiful views across the valley and beyond to the Maasai Mara Reserve.

Although Mara North conservancy borders the Maasai Mara reserve, there really is no reason to go any further, as wildlife is plentiful and a large pride of lion has made their home, here in the conservancy, as well as a plethora of many other species.

Breakfast or lunch will be eaten in the bush, when and where we want it.

The wildlife is abundant and the gentle rolling grasslands ensure that animals are never out of sight. Birds, too, are prolific. Including migrants, well over 450 species have been recorded, among them, 57 species of birds of prey. The climate is gentle, rarely too hot and well-spread rainfall year round. The Mara North Conservancy borders the Maasai Mara National Reserve (1672 square km) which lies about 270 kilometers from Nairobi and the conservancy has exclusive us of about 67,900 acres of un-spoilt wilderness. The first sight of this natural wonderland is breathtaking. Throughout the year the Maasai

Mara is a place of natural drama, a kaleidoscope of colour and life. Thomson's and Grant's gazelle, Topi and Eland and many more species of plains' game offer a rich choice of food for the dominant predators; lion, leopard and cheetah which hunt in this pristine wilderness. Here the great herds of shuffling elephants browse among the rich tree-studded grasslands.

In the Mara River, Hippo and Crocodile are commonly found. But for all this richness of fauna, the profusion of winged beauty and the untouched fragility of the landscape are all subordinate to the Mara's foremost attraction, the mighty march of the wildebeest. Culminating in the most spectacular annual migration in the world, with over a million and a half wildebeest and zebra making the crossings over the grand Mara River from Tanzania into Kenya, this spectacle offers one of the most fabulous opportunities in our time. Although July, August and September are the months when the Maasai Mara plains are filled with migrating wildebeest and zebra, there is a huge amount of resident wildlife year round. Apart from the better-known species there are numerous opportunities to add some of the rare and less frequently seen animals to the visitor's checklist. Bat-eared foxes peer from their burrows and there are thousands of Topi, an antelope not found in other major parks save Tsavo National Park. The combination of a gentle climate, scenic splendor and untold numbers of wildlife makes the Maasai Mara Kenya's most popular inland destination park.

DAY 13 - DEPARTURE:

We shall enjoy a last early morning game drive, then after lunch, we can freshen up and catch our afternoon schedule flight to Nairobi Wilson, and then transferred to the International Airport and your onward flight home.

End of services.

ABOUT YOUR OLIVE TREK SAFARI GUIDES:-

Peter Cadot

Pete has spent 37 years of his marriage, to Alison, sharing East Africa's wilderness treasures with Chala & Torsten, their children and visitors from all over the world.

Peter's paternal Grandfather (French) relinquished his French ancestry, for an English wife and a life in England. Their only son Dennis came to Kenya in 1944, with the Royal Artillery ("Gunners," as he would proudly say) and later became a respected member of the Advertising fraternity both in Kenya and South Africa.

His maternal Grandfather (Scottish) was transferred from the Rhodesian Rangers and seconded to the British Army in Kenya. He then joined the KAR, (King's African Rifles) around 1915. Arriving as a Sergeant thereafter quickly promoted to Captain. His unit was instrumental in fighting an epic battle for Saliata Hill, close to the border of Tanzania which the Germans held onto convincingly. After the First World War, he claimed his 'Soldier/ settler' Farm, on the foothills of Mount Kenya and Aberdare Mountain. Diana, Peters' mother lived and grew up at Ngobit Farm, Nyeri.

Since completing his education in England, Peter has dedicated his life and passion to the safari industry, running game lodges, camps and camping adventures around East Africa. He is renowned for his deep knowledge of the local flora and fauna, his close relations with the Samburu and Maasai communities, his warm humour, and his legendary campfire wit. But beware: not all tales he tells are as tall as they may seem!

Torsten Cadot

Torsten, born and raised in the vast Kenyan wilderness developed a passion and deep love for "everything bush" from a young age. His insatiable curiosity and enthusiasm to further his knowledge and insight into the African wilderness is infectious.

He loves sharing this knowledge and adventurous spirit with many a guest! His deep respect and close friendship with many indigenous tribes in Kenya adds a wonderful cultural twist to each safari.

In 2012 Torsten left Kenya to pursue a career in the British military, and to satiate a zeal for international travel, and adventure.

Returning after a 9-year absence, with a host of professional accolades, and an accumulation of stories of travel, exploration, adventure and guarding the British royal family, he has settled in the leafy suburbs of Nairobi, to pursue his lifelong dream of leading adventure and photographic safaris and guiding alongside his father - Peter.
