Karibu - Welcome! You will be met at Jomo Kenyatta International Airport by your professional safari guide, Peter or Torsten Cadot when you arrive in Nairobi, and transferred to House of Waine, situated in the leafy suburbs of Langata for your overnight stay.

DAY 2, 3 & 4 - EL KARAMA LODGE - LAIKIPIA

After an early breakfast we board our schedule flight and fly North West to Nanyuki, then transferred by vehicle (approximately 1 1/2 hours) to El Karama Lodge arriving for a sumptuous lunch.

All the vegetables, salads and herbs are grown in their own farm garden and are freshly picked for your meals!

This artistic lodge is set in the heart of 14,000 acres of private wilderness on the banks of the Ewaso Nyiro River frequented by a vast array of wildlife, including four of the Big 5; it is also a practicing cattle ranch too.

The Lodge was designed, built and is operated by the owners, Murray and Sophie Grant.

Fourth generation Kenyans, Murray Grant (a renowned wildlife sculptor & conservationist) and Sophie Grant (a sustainability specialist) designed El Karama as a 'home away from home' - an authentic Kenyan wilderness oasis.

Their passion for a cozy family atmosphere, serving home grown produce, from the farm to fork, practicing eco-sustainability, it offers a perfect mixture of comfort, luxury and life in harmony with nature.

There are a numerous of activities to keep you busy, as and when you want or as relaxed as you would like it to be!

From game drives, night game drives, horse riding, camel rides, bush walks, delightful sundowners, picnic by the river, or on the lively plains, helicopter rides, the choice is yours.

Wake up to the golden sunrise, framing the snow-capped peaks of Mt. Kenya. A game drive or gentle walk through this gorgeous wilderness, ending with a bush breakfast set under a mighty thorn tree or under an ancient knarled Boscia tree overlooking this gorgeous vast African wilderness, it will leave everlasting impressions!

The wildlife in Laikipia has some unusual species, the greater kudu, (a beautiful majestic antelope,) grevy zebra, reticulated giraffe, gerenuk, (an antelope similar to the impala, but with a long giraffe-like-neck), African wild dog, to name but a few, but the bird life too, is spectacular.

Finally with the setting sun we can enjoy a delightful sundowner, with your favourite cocktail in hand, as we lose ourselves in the golden setting sun, as it dips below the ancient escarpment, leaving a dull glow of deep red. It is time then to return to the lodge when we have had our fill of this beautiful scene.

We have 3 days to explore this ancient, but magnificent wilderness!

Indulge yourself in the peace and comfort of El Karama and tune into the magical sounds of wild Africa, while dining under the glittering stars.

To explore this ancient land, it will leave deep impressions that Africa belongs to you!

DAY 5, 6 & 7 - KICHECHE LAIKIPIA CAMP

After a leisurely breakfast we are transferred by road, approximately 1 ½ hours, towards the foot hills of Mount Kenya, to Nanyuki and Laikipia camp, located in Ol Pejeta private conservancy of 90,000 acres in time for lunch. Just 6 luxury tents overlooking a waterhole where wildlife congregates and it is tempting to just relax on your verandah and observe the action! However, there is so much to see and lots of activities available and the area too beautiful to allow time, to sit still; there is no other way but to grasp the natural wonders that await our presence.

We spend the next 3 days exploring this beautiful wilderness.

The Conservancy is home to a large population of Black & white Rhino, as well as elephant, cheetah, lion, leopard, hyena and plentiful plains game. There are also a number of rarer Northern species such as Grevy Zebra, Jacksons/Lelwels Hartebeest and Beisa Oryx.

The Conservancy lies on the Equator and with sweeping grass lands, beautiful acacia forests and wonderful views of Mt Kenya.

Available too, is a wide range of activities including walking safaris, game viewing (day & night) in a 4WD vehicle, mountain biking safari's, lion tracking, canoeing, and visits to the Wildlife Educational center, Chimpanzee sanctuary and Northern White rhino enclosure.

DAY 8, 9, 10 & 11 - KICHECHE MARA CAMP - MAASAI MARA

We board our morning schedule flight and fly south west to the world famous Maasai Mara reserve, where big game is the order of the day. On the sweeping river-fed plains, the whole of wild Africa congregates, from Elephant and Buffalo to the prowling cats and huge herds of plains game, our home for the next five days.

Our days will be filled with a veritable wildlife feast.

The camp is set up in the heart of the Mara North Conservancy, in a picturesque valley, surrounded by indigenous trees and bush, commanding beautiful views across the valley and beyond to the Maasai Mara Reserve.

Although Mara North conservancy borders the Maasai Mara reserve, there really is no reason to go any further, as wildlife is plentiful and a large pride of lion has made their home here in the conservancy, as well as a plethora of many other species.

Breakfast and lunch will be eaten in the bush, when and where we want it.

The wildlife is abundant and the gentle rolling grasslands ensure that animals are never out of sight. Birds, too, are prolific. Including migrants, well over 450 species have been recorded, among them, 57 species of birds of prey. The climate is gentle, rarely too hot and well-spread rainfall year round. The Mara North Conservancy borders the Maasai Mara National Reserve (1672 square km) which lies about 270 kilometers from Nairobi and the conservancy have exclusive us of about 67,900 acres of un-spoilt wilderness.

The first sight of this natural wonderland is breathtaking. Throughout the year the Maasai Mara is a place of natural drama, a kaleidoscope of colour and life. Thomson's and Grant's gazelle, Topi and Eland and many more species of plains' game offer a rich choice of food for the dominant predators; lion, leopard and cheetah which hunt in this pristine wilderness.

Here the great herds of shuffling elephants browse among the rich tree-studded grasslands. In the Mara River, Hippo and Crocodile are commonly found. But for all this richness of fauna, the profusion of winged beauty and the untouched fragility of the landscape are all subordinate to the Mara's foremost attraction, the mighty march of the wildebeest. Culminating in the most spectacular annual migration in the world, with over a million and a half wildebeest and zebra making the crossings over the grand Mara River from Tanzania into Kenya, this spectacle offers one of the most fabulous opportunities in our time. Although July, August and September are the months when the Maasai Mara plains are filled with migrating wildebeest and zebra, there is a huge amount of resident wildlife year round. Apart from the better-known species there are numerous opportunities to add some of the rare and less frequently seen animals to the visitor's checklist. Bat-eared foxes peer from their burrows and there are thousands of Topi, an antelope not found in other major parks save Tsavo National Park. The combination of a gentle climate, scenic splendor and untold numbers of wildlife makes the Maasai Mara Kenya's most popular inland destination park.

DAY 12 - DEPARTURE: We shall enjoy a last early morning game drive, then after lunch, we can freshen up and catch our afternoon schedule flight to Nairobi Wilson, and then transferred to the International Airport and your onward flight home.

OR

FOR THE RWANDA EXTENSION -

After breakfast in camp we bid farewell to the camp staff and catch the morning Schedule flight to Wilson Nairobi, before being transferred to the International Airport for our flight to Rwanda - Kigali.

SERENA KIGALI HOTEL - RWANDA – After a short flight of one & half hours, we land at Kigali International Airport, and transferred to Serena Kigali Hotel for our overnight stay.

DAY 13 & 14 - THE BISHOPS HOUSE

After a leisurely breakfast and checking out of the Hotel, we meet our driver guide, and take a short City Tour of Kigali, including a visit to the Genocide memorial museum, a grim reminder of senseless massacre, of over a million people in 100 days, in 1994.

The recovery has been incredible, a testament to humankind's resilience. The history of Rwanda dates back centuries, Kigali has been a part of it for 100 years. Founded in 1907 as a German settlement, Kigali did not become the capital until Rwanda's independence in 1962 when it replaced the colonial seat of power in Butare.

Rwanda, they say, means the land of a thousand hills, as you will discover on our very scenic drive, weaving our way round the plentiful hills, arriving late afternoon at The Bishops House, to a very warm welcome from our hosts.

After freshening up, we meet in the beautifully appointed lounge, with a huge log fire, for pre-dinner drinks, and then enjoy a sumptuous dinner.

The Bishops House is located a short distance from the headquarters of the Parc National des Volcans from where guests trek on foot to see the magnificent Mountain Gorilla – perhaps one of the most dramatic, thrilling and poignant wildlife experiences possible.

The mighty Virunga's is a chain of 15,000 ft. volcanoes stretching through Rwanda, Uganda and the Democratic Republic of Congo. Guest rooms and the main lodge building have been artfully constructed and is the perfect base from which to explore this unique and fascinating corner of Africa.

The Republic of Rwanda, known as the Land of a Thousand Hills, is a landlocked country located in the Great Lakes region of eastern-central Africa, bordered by Uganda, Burundi, the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Tanzania.

Although close to the equator, the country has a cool temperate climate due to its high elevation. The terrain consists mostly of grassy uplands and gently rolling hills. Abundant wildlife, including rare mountain gorillas, has resulted in tourism becoming one of the biggest sectors of the country's economy.

Rwanda has received considerable international attention due to its 1994 genocide, in which an estimated 800,000 – 1,000,000 people were killed. Since then the country has made a recovery and is now considered as a model for developing countries. In 2009 a CNN report labeled Rwanda as Africa's biggest success story, having achieved stability, economic growth (average income has tripled in the past ten years) and international integration.

The government is widely seen as one of the more efficient and honest ones in Africa. In 2007 Fortune magazine published an article titled "Why CEOs Love Rwanda." The capital, Kigali, is the first city in Africa to be awarded the Habitat Scroll of Honor Award in the recognition of its "cleanliness, security and urban conservation model." In 2008, Rwanda became the first country to elect a national legislature in which a majority of members were women. Rwanda joined the Commonwealth of Nations on 29 November 2009 as its fifty-fourth member, making the country one of only two in the Commonwealth without a British colonial past.

THE VIRUNGA MOUNTAINS

© Peter Cadot

The Virunga Mountains are a chain of volcanoes in East Africa, along the northern border of Rwanda, the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) and Uganda. The mountain range is a branch of the Albertine Rift, a part of the Great Rift Valley. They are located between Lake Edward and Lake Kivu.

The mountain range consists of eight major volcanoes. Most of them are dormant, except Mount Nyiragongo 3,462 metres (11,358 ft) and Mount Nyamuragira 3,063 metres (10,049 ft), both in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Recent eruptions occurred in 2006, and in January 2010. Mount Karisimbi at 4,507 metres (14,787 ft) is the highest volcano. The oldest mountain is Mount Sabyinyo, which rises 3,634 metres (11,923 ft), above sea level.

© Peter Cadot

The Virunga Mountains are home of the critically endangered mountain gorilla, listed on the IUCN Red List of Endangered Species due to habitat loss, poaching, disease, and war (Butynski et al. 2003). The Karisoke Research Center, founded by Dian Fossey to observe gorillas in their native habitat, is located between Mount Karisimbi and Mount Bisoke. It is an early start this morning, with a light breakfast, in order to meet with our trekking guide at 0700 hrs at the park offices. Here we will be briefed by our tracker/guides on our morning program and allocated the gorilla group we will be tracking. After our briefing we will drive to where the trail starts, which is where our trek begins!

©Peter Cadot

Once the gorillas are located, our group will be allowed a maximum of one hour with them so that their routines are not invaded. This is one of the world's truly memorable experiences – a look into one of these magnificent creatures' eyes, brings home the bond that exists between them and us.

The rainforests of the Virunga Volcanoes are the last refuge of the Mountain Gorilla. The Virungas span Rwanda, Uganda and the Democratic Republic of Congo, with the Parc National des Volcans being the Rwandese element of this ecosystem. The lush slopes of the volcanoes provide an appropriately dramatic natural setting for what is perhaps the most poignant and thrilling wildlife experience to be had anywhere – to see the Mountain Gorilla in its natural habitat. Roughly half of the world's wild population of Mountain Gorillas is resident on the Rwandan slopes of the Virungas. Five habituated families of gorillas are visited, and these families have from seven to over thirty-five individuals in each.

After our trek this morning, we will drive back to The Bishops House in time for a late lunch and afternoon at leisure.

Your shoes are taken away and cleaned, and if you wish, your trousers or clothes can be laundered and will be returned early evening, or with your early morning coffee, ready for your next day's gorilla trek

DAY 15 OR 16 - DEPARTURE:

After an early breakfast, on the day of departure, we shall take our luggage with us and head to the Park Headquarters for our final morning Gorilla trek.

After our trek to the Gorillas, we will meet up with our driver and head to Kigali, approximately 3 hour drive to Kigali Serena Hotel.

A day room or an overnight room will be reserved to freshen up and enjoy our farewell snack-dinner, before being transferred to Kigali International Airport and your onward flight home.

End of services.

*'At the end of a journey, the most memorable moments are the ones you take home.
From the people you've met, and the animals you've seen, the places you've stayed and all the Reasons why you will be back again!'
Kwaheri ya kuonana!*

ABOUT YOUR OLIVE TREK SAFARI GUIDES:-

Peter Cadot

Pete has spent 37 years of his marriage, to Alison, sharing East Africa's wilderness treasures with Chala & Torsten, their children and visitors from all over the world.

Peter's paternal Grandfather (French) relinquished his French ancestry, for an English wife and a life in England. Their only son Dennis came to Kenya in 1944, with the Royal Artillery ("Gunners," as he would proudly say) and later became a respected member of the Advertising fraternity both in Kenya and South Africa.

His maternal Grandfather (Scottish) was transferred from the Rhodesian Rangers and seconded to the British Army in Kenya. He then joined the KAR, (King's African Rifles) around 1915. Arriving as a Sergeant thereafter quickly promoted to Captain. His unit was instrumental in fighting an epic battle for Saliata Hill, close to the border of Tanzania which the Germans held onto convincingly. After the First World War, he claimed his 'Soldier/ settler' Farm, on the foothills of Mount Kenya and Aberdare Mountain. Diana, Peters' mother lived and grew up at Ngobit Farm, Nyeri.

Since completing his education in England, Peter has dedicated his life and passion to the safari industry, running game lodges, camps and camping adventures around East Africa. He is renowned for his deep knowledge of the local flora and fauna, his close relations with the Samburu and Maasai communities, his warm humour, and his legendary campfire wit. But beware: not all tales he tells are as tall as they may seem!

Torsten Cadot

Torsten, born and raised in the vast Kenyan wilderness developed a passion and deep love for "everything bush" from a young age. His insatiable curiosity and enthusiasm to further his knowledge and insight into the African wilderness is infectious.

He loves sharing this knowledge and adventurous spirit with many a guest! His deep respect and close friendship with many indigenous tribes in Kenya adds a wonderful cultural twist to each safari.

In 2012 Torsten left Kenya to pursue a career in the British military, and to satiate a zeal for international travel, and adventure.

Returning after a 9-year absence, with a host of professional accolades, and an accumulation of stories of travel, exploration, adventure and guarding the British royal family, he has settled in the leafy suburbs of Nairobi, to pursue his lifelong dream of leading adventure and photographic safaris and guiding alongside his father - Peter.
